This Weeks Headlines

- This week was again a short week. With no school on Monday, we really had to work hard to learn our new spelling words and story.
- Our story was called "Splash!" In this story, we started talking about quotation marks, or talking marks. We also started learning about exclamation points and when to use them. You'll probably be seeing tons of them now that we've introduced them.
- Today was the end of the 1st quarter. The 1st quarter is a lot of review from kindergarten. With that being said, the 2nd quarter is a bit harder and grades might fall a little bit. Continue to work at home, and I know they'll all do great!
- I have made a classroom website! If you go to the Mokena home page, you can find my name under staff and you'll be able to click on it. There are pictures, spelling words, and practice ideas. Take a look!

A Few Reminders...

- Report cards will be going home next Friday.
- Our Halloween party is on Wednesday. Please do not send your child to school with any props for their costume.
- Don't forget to send in the empty milk cartons for the party. If you have extras at home, please feel free to send those in as well!
